

Location Information

Quinta Encantada is a one-of-a-kind property in Puerto Vallarta's best location: Conchas Chinas, the Beverly Hills of Puerto Vallarta. Located just above the highway to Mismaloya less than a mile from Puerto Vallarta's Southside, Quinta Encantada enjoys unobstructed panoramic views - south past Los Arcos, west to the Isle de Marietas and north from Los Muertos Beach along Riviera Nayarit to Punta Mita (the north end of Banderas Bay). Quinta Encantada is within walking distance to popular Los Muertos Beach, Puerto Vallarta's Romantic Zone and the Malecon (Puerto Vallarta's "boardwalk"). Alternatively, it's a short ride on one of Puerto Vallarta's popular buses or by taxi.

Quinta Encantada's English-speaking house manager who lives on-site, will cater to your vacation needs (whether booking a tour, chartering a sailing or fishing excursion, making dinner reservations or arranging transportation). Maid service is provided daily (except Sundays and holidays). Chef services are available by request.

CONTACT

MX: 322-22 1 50 50

USA: (703) 623 37 30

quinta.encantada@gmail.com

www.quintaencantada.com

Puerto Vallarta Mexico

Each of Villa Emily's 4 bedrooms is has a king size bed and private bathroom covered floor to ceiling in colorful Mexican tile. Villa Emily's expansive living room has three separate sitting areas, a dining table (seating 8) and spectacular views of Banderas Bay and Puerto Vallarta's Southside. A den outside the master bedroom opens to a heated pool, palapa and deck that overlooks Banderas Bay and Quinta Encantada's own tropical jungle.

Villa Gregory's 2 bedrooms are on the top floor of this two-story villa. The master bedroom has a spacious sitting area that overlooks the Bay. Both bedrooms have private bathrooms covered floor-to-ceiling in colorful Mexican tile. Villa Gregory's first floor has a kitchen with seating for 4 at the counter, a half-bathroom, a dining table (seating 8) and a large living room with two seating areas that open to a heated pool and deck where you can lounge in the sun or rest in the shade of the palapa.

QUINTA ENCANTADA

Nestled in the mountains above the highway to Mismaloya and just minutes from downtown, Quinta Encantada is a secured, private complex with jaw-dropping views of Banderas Bay, the Sierra Madre Mountains and Puerto Vallarta's Southside. Quinta Encantada is comprised of five luxury Villas under the same ownership, each with its own private entrance, unique style and panoramic view. With approximately 20,000 sq. feet of living space, Quinta Encantada's 12 airconditioned bedrooms and three heated pools provide the perfect entertaining and living space for vacations with family or friends, weddings, or corporate retreats.

Villa Leah, Quinta Encantada's 2-bedroom "penthouse," enjoys 360 degree views that words cannot adequately describe. A covered deck that overlooks Quinta Encantada's own "jungle" and popular Los Muertos Beach is a favorite spot to enjoy a meal or use the telescope to get a closer look at the action on the beach or the bay. Villa Leah's front deck is perfect for lounging in the afternoon sun, watching whales playing in the bay, viewing the nightly fireworks or swimming in the heated pool that extends into the living and dining area. The covered rear deck is festooned with tropical plants and is the owners' favorite spot to read while enjoying a cool breeze from the Sierra Madre Mountains.

Villa Samuel is Quinta Encantada's two-story, 3-bedroom villa. Picture windows on both floors provide stunning views of the Bay looking south toward Los Arcos. Each bedroom has a king size bed and private bathroom. The master bedroom has a separate seating area while the guest bedrooms access an outside terrace with table and chairs that overlooks the bay and pool. Villa Samuel's expansive first floor has a kitchen with counter seating for 4 and dining table (seating 6). The living room has a sectional sofa positioned to enjoy the views of Quinta Encantada's tropical jungle and Banderas Bay. Sliding glass doors give an open-air feel and lead to a heated pool deck and palapa.

Villa Carter is a spacious 1-bedroom, 2.5 bathroom villa that enjoys unobstructed views of the Bay and the city from the solitude of its private terrace. Inside, 8 foot sliding glass doors give an open-air feel and permit enjoyment of the city and bay views as you relax on the living room sofa, sit at the dining table or prepare a meal in the kitchen. Stairs outside the front door lead to a heated pool, deck and palapa